Revised South Trail Fire Protection & Rescue Service District Executive Emergency Declaration—Tropical Depression Nine

WHEREAS, as of September 23, 2022, the National Hurricane Center reported that Invest 98L had strengthened to Tropical Depression Nine; and

WHEREAS, the National Hurricane center predicts that this storm system will threaten our area with the risk of storm surge, heavy rainfall, flash flooding, strong winds, hazardous seas, potential tornadic activity, and a strong possibility of hurricane-strength impacts on or about Tuesday, September 27, 2022; and

WHEREAS, the threat posed by Tropical Depression Nine requires that timely precautions are taken to protect our primary response area as well as provide mutual aid to surrounding jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, multiple response agencies, including the South Trail Fire Protection & Rescue Service District, in conjunction with the Region 6 USAR Team, remain operationally ready to be deployed to this weather emergency; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gene Rogers, as Fire Chief of the South Trail Fire Protection & Rescue Service District, by virtue of the authority vested in me, and with direction of, the South Trail Fire Protection & Rescue Service District's Board of Fire Commissioners, Florida State Statute Chapter 191 and the Lee County Independent Special Fire Control District Act, Chapter 97-340, direct the following local order to take effect immediately, in accordance with Office of the Governor, Executive Order #22-219 (Tropical Depression Nine).

This declaration shall expire on November 22, 2022, unless extended, or canceled, by the South Trail Fire Protection & Rescue Service District.

South Trail Fire Protection & Rescue Service District, Lee County, Florida this 17th day of October, 2022.

STATE OF FLORIDA

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBER 22-219

(Amending Executive Order 22-218, Emergency Management – Tropical Depression Nine)

WHEREAS, on September 23, 2022, I issued Executive Order 22-218 and declared a state of emergency exists for several counties in Florida’s Peninsula and the Florida Keys due to Tropical Depression Nine; and

WHEREAS, as of 11:00 PM EDT on September 23, 2022, Tropical Depression Nine strengthened into Tropical Storm Ian, with maximum sustained winds of 40 miles per hour; and

WHEREAS, as of 8:00 AM EDT on September 24, 2022, Tropical Storm Ian was approximately 855 miles southwest of Key West, Florida; and

WHEREAS, Tropical Storm Ian is forecasted to become a major hurricane before making landfall along Florida’s West Coast; and

WHEREAS, the Florida Division of Emergency Management, working together with the National Hurricane Center to evaluate weather predictions, has determined there is a continuing risk of dangerous storm surge, heavy rainfall, flash flooding, strong winds, hazardous seas, and isolated tornadic activity for Florida’s Peninsula and portions of the Florida Big Bend, North Florida, and Northeast Florida; and

WHEREAS, the threat posed by Tropical Storm Ian requires that timely precautions are taken to protect the communities, critical infrastructure, and general welfare of Florida; and

WHEREAS, as Governor, I am responsible to meet the dangers presented to Florida and its people by this emergency.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RON DESANTIS, as Governor of Florida, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article IV, Section 1(a) of the Florida Constitution and by the Florida

Emergency Management Act, as amended, and all other applicable laws, promulgate the following Executive Order, to take immediate effect:

Section 1. Section 1 of Executive Order 22-218 is amended to read as follows:

Because of the foregoing conditions, which are projected to constitute a major disaster, I declare a state of emergency exists in the State of Florida.

Section 2. Except as amended herein, Executive Order 22-218 is ratified and reaffirmed.

Section 3. This Executive Order is effective immediately and shall expire upon the expiration of Executive Order 22-218.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed, at Tallahassee, this 24th day of September, 2022.
